A study of World War 2 and its effect on Plymouth and our local area. This topic has a historical focus, as we uncover hidden war-time treasures that have been discovered in our local area. We will also have a geography link, as we study the impact of the war on the whole world.

All our English work this term will link to our 'Walls Have Ears' topic:

- Narrative based on a short film called 'The Piano' by Aidan Gibbons.
- Novel study: 'Letters from the Lighthouse' by Emma Carroll
- War Poetry

ICT

Complete 2 units of study:

1. Computing Systems & Networks - Communication
 2. Creating Media - 3D Modelling
- Children will build on skills in coding using code.org.
