

Stage 6 - Lesson 36: Mathematical Vocabulary

addition parallel

calculation horizontal circumference multiplication

diameter
subtraction

division vertical

Write this week's words onto the correct syllable map.

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

---|---|---|---|

Write the word that matches the definition.

Calculating the total of two or more numbers.

Two equidistant lines which will never meet.

Going across, rather than up and down.

The perimeter of a circle.

A straight line going through the centre of a circle.

Sharing numbers, quantities or objects equally.

Which words should complete these sentences?

Taking away is also called _____.

On a graph, the y-axis is _____.

After some quick _____, I got the correct answer.

_____ is the same as repeated addition.

Sort this week's words.

'-tion' Ending

Different Ending

How confident are you with this week's words?

